CALIFORNIA COLLEGE ATHLETES PREPARING FOR NORMAL TIMES

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Southern California athletes are already returning from the army in such numbers as to make certain a great revival of interest in college sports this spring.

The University of Southern California will have track and basketball teams. Occidental college, near Los Angeles, will have basketball and football teams. Pomona college, at Claremont, has basketball and football teams.

Los Angeles State College will have basketball and football teams. The University of California at Berkeley will have basketball and football teams. The University of California at Los Angeles will have basketball and football teams.

The only handicap under which the college men will labor this spring is a financial one. The public has not absorbed in the war the full extent of the football games in southern California in sufficient numbers to make the sport pay. Thus, too many games had to be called off because of influenza.

Some Famous Cats.
Southey declared that a house was not complete unless it contained a child rising three and a cat rising six weeks. He wrote "The Chronicle History of the Cat of the Eden" for his numerous progeny, and among the famous cats of Great Britain, Kowalek, were those named Lord Nelson, Lord Marlborough, Pope John, Othello the Moor (a black cat), Pulcheria and Mimi.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE
TONOPAH GIPSY MINING COMPANY—Location of principal place of business and location of works, Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada.
Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held on the 5th day of February, 1919, an assessment (No. 16) of one (1) cent per share was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately in United States gold coin, to the Secretary, at the office of the company, Room 365 Russ building, San Francisco, California.

STAMP SHARKS FOILED BY NEW POSTAL RULING

Postmasters Ordered Not to Cash Brokered Savings Certificates.

Speculators dealing in War Savings Stamps are hit by the following orders just issued by Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass and by the Office of the Postmaster General.

The following is quoted from a notice issued by the Secretary of the Treasury:
"My attention has been directed to numerous offers made by unscrupulous persons through advertisements and in other ways to buy war-savings certificate stamps and, as a result of such offense, I am informed that owners of such securities have suffered material losses which could have been avoided by redemption of the war-savings certificate stamps at post office, as provided by law.

"In order that the interests of owners of war-savings certificate stamps of either series may be safeguarded, I hereby notify all persons to refrain from offers to buy war-savings stamps or accept the same in trade."
Following is the order of A. M. Dockery, Third Assistant Postmaster General:

"In pursuance of the foregoing, postmasters are directed not to pay war-savings certificates on which the names of the owners have not been entered or have been erased or changed, since, under the regulations, they are not transferable and are payable only to the original owners, except in case of death or disability.

"Postmasters are further instructed not to pay any war-savings certificates presented by persons or firms known to be buying or publicly offering to buy, war-savings stamps or certificates from the owners unless positive evidence is submitted that the certificates were originally issued to the persons or firms presenting them for payment."
When consulted by owners of war-savings stamps in regard to offers to purchase such stamps at less than current value postmasters should invite their attention to the fact that war-savings certificates may be cashed at money-order post offices after 10 days' written notice, and that this is a privilege accorded by law. At the same time it should be pointed out that the need of the Government for the proceeds of the war-savings stamp issue is great, and the holders should be urged to retain their stamps until maturity as a patriotic act unless their necessities are urgent."
